FOUNDED BY
PETER GZOWSKI

"The PGIs bring together so much that matters to me; friends, laughter, poetry, music – all playing to make a better world," said Canadian writer and broadcaster Peter Gzowski, who championed the cause of adult literacy in this country and who had big dreams: a million dollars raised.

Now, having raised more than $12 million, the PGIs are a lasting tribute to his vision and a testament to the thousands of golfers, participants, volunteers and sponsors who, each year, take up the torch.
